

Trafco Group W.L.L. Renews its ISO (22000:2018) and HACCP Certifications

Trafco Group W.L.L., one of Bahrain's leading companies specializing in the manufacturing, importing, and distribution of food products, has announced the renewal of its ISO (22000:2018) and HACCP certifications, issued by the global company TUV NORD and accredited by the Emirates Global Accreditation Center.

The renewal of these certifications follows a comprehensive review and extensive auditing of the company's food security, service efficiency, and safety procedures. This achievement underscores the company's strategy to maintain the highest level of compliance with ISO (22000:2018) and HACCP standards, marking the fourth consecutive year of successfully passing the periodic audit obtaining these certificates is added to the company's series of achievements, reflecting its strong commitment to achieving sustainability strategy in accordance with the highest international standards.

The Group chief Officer, Mr. Azzam Moutragi, proudly announced the renewal of ISO (22000:2018) and HACCP certifications. which reflects the commitment of the Board of Director and Executive Management to adopt a strategic criteria ensuring food safety and transparency in business transactions.

ISO (22000:2018) and HACCP are considered as international certificate standards sought after by major companies which, enabled organizations and individuals to interact confidently with the group in their business transactions.